By-Law IX | Access to Records

In this By-Law the interpretation provisions of the Company's Constitution apply unless the context otherwise requires.

1. Any Members may apply in writing to the Board setting out the reasons for seeking to inspect any relevant documents and their intended use. The Board will consider the application and may in its entire discretion allow or refuse, in whole or in part, the inspection sought by the Fellow. The board must advise the Fellow of its decision.
2. Where a Members is entitled to access the Company's records and requests the Company to provide copies of such records, the Board has resolved that the Fellow shall pay the Company $1.32 (including GST) for each page copied and any associated costs, e.g. mailing.
